Activity	Description
Eaglets Creation (Canvas Painting)	Canvas Painting offers a unique opportunity for campers to blend their passion for art with the serenity of nature. Through their creations, they’ll capture the essence of their outdoor experiences and discover the connection between art and the world around them.
Pottery Making	Pottery Making offers campers more than just the chance to create beautiful pottery; it’s also about personal growth, self-expression, and forging connections with nature. Campers will develop their artistic skills, gain confidence in their abilities, and deepen their appreciation for the natural world that inspires their craft.
Wet & Wild (Baby Pool)	This is a fantastic way to keep campers engaged, cool off on hot days, and promote water safety.
Skit & Storytelling Session	Toddler storytelling and skits sessions are magical portals where young minds embark on adventures, learn valuable life lessons, and develop essential skills. These sessions create an environment of creativity, imagination, and joy that enriches early childhood experiences.
Sensory Eaglets	Sensory lessons for toddlers are a gateway to a world of discovery, growth, and wonder. Through engaging activities that stimulate their senses, campers take their first steps toward understanding and connecting with the world around them.
