Activity	Description
Getting To Know the Animals	A phonetics class introducing animals and exploring the sounds and vocalizations made by various animals. Toddlers will learn the unique phonetic features of animal sounds, such as roars, chirps and howls.
Connect the Dots	Toddlers will have to draw lines to sequentially link numbered dots, revealing a hidden image or shape as a result. The goal is to follow the numerical order to create a picture, stimulating problem-solving and visual perception skills.
Animal Painting	Painting is a creative and educational activity designed for young children. This activity encourages fine motor skills, sensory exploration, color recognition and self-expression, fostering both creativity and cognitive development in a fun and engaging way.
Match the Animals	This activity helps young children develop cognitive skills. It involves matching objects with images of animals, while introducing the toddlers to the animal kingdom. This encourages toddlers to learn and engage with the world of animals while honing important cognitive abilities.
Skit & Storytelling Session	Toddler storytelling and skit sessions are magical portals where young minds embark on adventures, learn valuable life lessons, and develop essential skills. These sessions create an environment of creativity, imagination, and joy that enriches early childhood experiences. So, whether it's a playful puppet show, a captivating storybook tale, or a simple skit acted out with giggles and grins, toddler storytelling and skit sessions are a treasure trove of fun and learning, nurturing the imaginative spirits of our youngest explorers.

Activity	Description
Christmas Tree Decoration	This activity allows toddlers to participate in adorning a Christmas tree with colourful ornaments, lights, and other festive decorations. Toddlers can practice fine motor skills and foster a sense of wonder and excitement during the holiday season while teaching them about the holiday's traditions.
Snowman Building	In this activity, toddlers will have a chance to build a snowman with paper towels. This is a creative and imaginative craft activity, especially when there's no real snow available. They will roll and stack paper towels to create a snowman-like figure. They can then use markers, buttons, or other craft supplies to decorate their paper towel snowman.
Gingerbread Man Decoration	Toddlers are provided with coloring sheets featuring gingerbread man outlines and they can use crayons, colored pencils or markers to add vibrant colors and patterns to these festive figures. This creative endeavor encourages fine motor skills, colour recognition and artistic expression, all while embracing the holiday spirit.
Sensory Play	Sensory lessons for toddlers are a gateway to a world of discovery, growth, and wonder. Through engaging activities that stimulate their senses, young learners take their first steps toward understanding and connecting with the world around them.

Activity	Description
Puzzle Fixing	In this engaging and educational activity, toddlers are presented with puzzles featuring large, colorful pieces that fit together to form a complete picture. This activity promotes problem solving, hand-eye coordination and cognitive development. It also encourages shape and pattern recognition, all while being a fun and rewarding experience.
Wet & Wild (Baby Pool)	This is a fantastic way to keep campers engaged, cool off on hot days, and promote water safety.
Pull The Pipe Cleaners	This is a sensory and fine motor activity where young children manipulate colorful, bendable pipe cleaners. Toddlers can pull and shape these flexible wires, enhancing their hand strength and dexterity. This activity also fosters creativity as they bend the pipe cleaners into various shapes and designs, all while providing a tactile and sensory experience.
Bounce to Music	What's better than a bouncy castle? Jolly music playing in the background while you bounce up, up and away, of course!
